Proposal Form 30th Annual Teaching Economics Conference
Co-sponsored by Robert Morris University & McGraw Hill Education
February 21, 22, & 23, 2019

Possible Presentation Topics:

Internationalizing the Curriculum	Teaching Techniques	Classroom Based Research
Assessing Student Learning	Use of Writing to Learn	Economics of Sports
Economics of Higher Education	Social Media in Teaching	Evaluation of Teaching
Economics of the Arts	Active Learning	Online Academic Integrity
Economics and AACSB Accreditation	Promoting the Economics Major	Economics of the Market for Textbooks

Presentation Proposal Form

This proposal is for a Paper _____ Panel_____Workshop _____

Title of Presentation_____

Presentation TOPIC addressed_____
(from list of Possible Presentation Topics or write "Other")

Presenter's
Name _____ Work Phone _____

Institution_____ Home Phone _____

Business Address _____ Department _____
(Street)

_____ _____ _____
(City) (State) (Zip Code)

E-Mail address_____

Co-Presenter (if any)
Name _____ Work Phone _____

Institution_____ Home Phone _____

Business Address _____ Department _____
(Street)

_____ _____ _____
(City) (State) (Zip Code)

E-Mail address_____

Please include a 1,000 word summary of what you plan to present. (List in your summary any audiovisual equipment, including computer hardware and software, needed for the presentation.) Attach a title page which specifies full names and institution titles for all presenters. The deadline for submission is January 31, 2019