All military members are welcome!
For information on Military, Reserve, or State Tuition Assistance programs, and each military service's policies and procedures, check with your service's online education center and nearest education office of your service component. You are subject to tuition charges if you drop out after first official week of class or fail the class. Check with RMU, a SOC (Servicemember's Opportunity Colleges) DNS (Degree Network System) affiliated school, for specific add and drop policies and procedures. Follow base procedures for entrance including bringing valid military ID, state driver's license, vehicle's registration and proof of insurance. On-base dates and access procedures are always subject to military emergency.
