A GAME-CHANGING BENEFIT FOR ALL
PITT OHIO TRANSPORTATION GROUP
EMPLOYEES AND THEIR FAMILIES.

GET READY TO GROW YOUR CAREER

For several years PITT OHIO and Robert Morris University have been working together to develop highly customized leadership development and training programs and other initiatives to make education more accessible. As our partnership has grown, we have continued to collaborate to develop new and additional benefits that will impact PITT OHIO employees and their families in meaningful ways.

Now as part of that commitment, PITT OHIO employees and their dependents (defined as spouses and children up to age 26) will receive a discount on all RMU certificate, undergrad, masters, or doctoral programs.*

*RN to MSN program is excluded from the discount

DISCOUNT INFORMATION

Discount: For Undergraduate programs identified below, eligible students will receive the greater of a 15% tuition discount or the discount offered in RMU's institutional aid package. For the Graduate programs listed below, eligible students will receive the 15% discount.

Programs: The discount applies to on-ground and online undergraduate and graduate degree programs including certificate programs, master's degree programs, and doctorate programs. The RN to MSN program is excluded from the discount.

HOW DOES IT WORK?

As part of our partnership, PITT OHIO employees and their dependents have access to a dedicated team of enrollment specialists at RMU that will assist them in understanding their benefits and guide them through the application and admission process.

Eligible students can enroll in as little as one course. Many individual courses and certificate programs are designed to be stackable, meaning that, over time, courses and certificates can be applied toward a degree program.

Enrolled students can also take advantage of RMU's Credit for Life program by having past training and work experience evaluated for college credit, saving time and money.
